About Me

Hey babe!

I'm Kelly Marcyniuk.

I'm a business + lifestyle coach that is pretty much obsessed with teaching other millennial babes how to live their absolute dream, freedom lifestyle, by creating passion-filled + profitable online businesses.

I truly believe our lives should be filled with the things that make us happy & excited.

No dream is too big, too crazy or too “unrealistic” (that word, ew).

I have a passion for health & wellness (but still love my wine & pizza - balance, right?), I am hooked on traveling, I am a complete freedom enthusiast, and I am totally obsessed with living by design.

Do you have really big, exciting dreams, but can't seem to make them your reality?

Do you know you're meant for more than your 9-5, but not exactly sure what "more" is?

Do you envy those insta babes who are living the ultimate freedom babe lifestyle - jet setting whenever they please, building a successful online business, living the laptop lifestyle, and seem to always have enough money for everything they desire?

I was that girl too. And it was SO freakin' frustrating. I knew I was meant for big things but didn't know how to get there.

Finally, I got the support and accountability I needed, believed in myself a hell of a lot more, and everything changed.

I'm now living the life I once envied, and teach other driven, boss-babes like you, how they can do the same through my

90 Days to Freedom Babe program.

If you're ready to launch your successful online coaching business, live the freedom babe lifestyle, and quit your 9-5 for good, this program was designed to make that happen for you.
